Remembering Star Wars Past

Monday, December 28, 2015

The last time Star Wars was in theaters the grandkids were caught up in the action. This was taken at Christmas 2003 when they were 2 - 9 years old.

Now they have all already seen the latest movie - a few of them twice. Only DH & I haven't seen it yet. This week for sure! Maybe even today.

Note: Our house addition hadn't been completed yet. The fireplace looks a lot better now.

How cute!!! We haven't seen the newest movie, either, but the kids want to and we got movie passes for Christmas from my bro-in-law. I'm not sure we all will agree to which movie.

Great pic! It reminds me of seeing the first one in theaters and getting a little woozy when the fighters in the aircraft went sideways. Can you tell I probably won't see the current version? lol Hope you enjoy it, though!

Didn't see it "then" or now either (and probably not gonna): but our new Prime Minister is a huge fan and treated 8 patients from sick kids' hospital to his advance viewing about 2 weeks ago!

My sons have seen it, but my daughter and I opted to get stuff done at home instead. In fact, H and D went to it when they did because I had asked them to get out of the house so I could accomplish a few things. :- ) I do plan to go see it, though; just not in a huge hurry.

We'll see it when we can watch it at home. Our home theater is much better than what the local movie house uses, plus we can pause if we need to.
