Water Water Everywhere except where we need it

Tuesday, October 06, 2015

DH & I fled the east coast rain and flooding for Europe to cruise the Elbe and then the Danube to the Black Sea.

Because of the warm winter last year and lack of snow, the Elbe is too low for the ship to sail. So we are seeing the sites by land.

First 3 days Berlin based. Our hotel is right by the Tiergarten (big park) - a great place for me to get in my morning run before a day of sight seeing.

We arrived on the 25th anniversary of Germany's reunification - a big celebration at the Brandenburg Gate. I'm trying to eat sensibly, but I do like German beer.

I am not much of a beer drinker myself, but I also love German Beer. Got hooked on it back in 1983 when I was a student and did the backpacking/hostelling thing. I'm sorry you aren't able to travel by water, but I hope you have a wonderful time anyway. :-)

Have fun, leave the pounds/kilos in Europe and enjoy the October over there. Sometime you'll have to try Belgian beer.
